1 Quintessential Miami

Port: Miami

Arrival Method: DOCK

Departure: 17:00

Welcome to Miami and the sweep of South Beach - backdrop to every iconic Miami movie, and forefront of Latin American culture. Stroll through pastel-hued geometric buildings in the art deco district, to graffiti mural masterpieces at Wynwood Walls. Watch Latino life unfold in Little Havana - the heartbeat of this great city - where walk-up windows sell café cortadito, sweet sugarcane juice, hatuey beer and guava ice-cream. Watch passionate locals discuss politics, play dominoes and smoke cigars. Shimmy at a salsa class, shop designer boutiques and race marlin and sharks by speedboat. Then slow your pace to uncover rare and endangered species at the Everglades National Park outdoor oasis. You'll find the Miami dream is real – and it's not just Cuban heels that will give you a spring in your step.

4 Pretty in Pink Bermuda

Port: King's Wharf

Arrival Method: DOCK

Arrival: 09:00

Picture a charming little island awash in peaceful pastels, and Bermuda – with its heavenly pink-sand beaches and endless turquoise ocean – can't be far off. Explore the beautiful shallow reefs that have played a key role in Atlantic maritime history, the shipwrecks here casting Bermuda and its 300 coral atolls as one of the world's best diving destinations; or seek Bermuda's superlative ocean-fronted fairways, surrounded by sun-bathed swaying palms and rich birdsong. Wander back through time amid the winding streets, colourful houses and pillar-box red phonebooths in whimsically British St George's and Hamilton, and then leap back into the here-and-now art galleries, restaurants and boutiques tapping into the island's breezy, blue-chip scene.

Colourful, Cosmopolitan Horta

Port: Horta (Faial Island)

Arrival Method: DOCK

Arrival: 09:00

Departure: 20:00

Colourful yachts bob just offshore the prettiest island in the Azores, its curvy coastline locked in the embrace of its formidable cliffs. A bevy of blue hydrangeas and beech trees drape hillsides dotted with terra cotta roofs and majestic churches. Grand panoramas continue from atop the volcanic caldera and Espalamaca Belvedere. Returning to terra firma, peace and tranquillity pervade whilst you linger along black sand beaches watching whales dance in the distance.

Convents and Craters in Ponta Delgada

Port: Ponta Delgada (São Miguel)

Arrival Method: DOCK

Arrival: 09:00

Departure: 18:00

The gothic facade of Igreja de São Sebastião and the gilded carvings of Igreja de São José are a man-made prelude to the natural wonders of São Miguel, Mother Nature's incubator. Venture into the village of Furnas and its volcanic caldera, flecked with steaming geysers and mineral-rich springs shrouded in Azorean cloud forest and misty waterfalls. Then delve into the sublime world of Sete Cidades, an epic landscape of crater lakes and pine-covered slopes, where the lost city of Atlantis lies submerged.

14 Enriching Cadiz

Port: Cadiz

Arrival Method: DOCK

Arrival: 09:00

Departure: 21:00

Go back in time - where cobbled streets clatter with horse drawn carriages, culture and history seeps through this Spanish city's soul. Enjoy locally produced tapas and admire the form of iconic Andalusian horses. Drift into tasting tours at sherry wineries in Jerez, then step out to twirl the flamenco. Explore Seville's architectural marvels; baroque churches, palaces, gothic cathedrals, aristocratic mansions and medieval buildings. With no less than three Unesco World Heritage sites to visit, you'll feel truly inspired by what Cadiz has to offer.

📍 DAY SPAIN

15 Where Málaga Leads

Port: Málaga

Arrival Method: DOCK

Arrival: 09:00

Departure: 23:30

Enjoy the epitome of Spanish charm. Slowly discover Andalusian riches to reveal Picasso's birthplace, the Alhambra in Granada, Mezquita in Cordoba and the Ronda valley. Explore ancient heritage sites, dance the flamenco, dare to hike the Caminito del Rey trail and delve into white villages sprinkled amongst mango groves and avocado orchards. Sip cocktails by day and sangria by night. And as you watch the sun slip down, reflect upon this gateway of delights.

Classical Seville and the Alcazar

In Seville, a wrong turn leads only to serendipity. Ancient bars on cobbled alleys, fiery flamenco, and the world's biggest gothic cathedral are among the Andalusian capital's abundant assets. The picturesque drive there, through olive groves, citrus trees, and vineyards, gives an enticing foretaste of the city to come. In Seville, we'll lead you through its ancient streets and plazas to the Barrio de Santa Cruz, the old Jewish quarter that today abounds with orange trees and beflowered squares. After lunch at a typical restaurant, you'll visit the colossal, arresting cathedral, the 98-metre Giralda tower, and the resplendent Royal Alcázar, a UNESCO World Heritage site and Europe's oldest working palace. Seville may be a compact city, but it packs more culture, history, and charisma than many of the world's great metropolises.

Inspiring Wonders of the Island

Spend an idyllic afternoon exploring Bermuda's natural beauty and learning about wildlife. Your experience begins with a sightseeing drive, enhanced by your driver's local knowledge. Then, open yourself to encounters with the wonders of the animal kingdom, during a stop at Bermuda Aquarium, Museum & Zoo, where the mission is to inspire appreciation and care of island environments. Discover more than 200 species of fish and delicate marine invertebrates that thrive in shallow coastal waters. Be dazzled by displays of over 300 birds like chattering cockatoos and pink flamingos. Glimpse colorful Madagascar reptiles and meet mammals from oceanic islands, all housed in lush naturalistic exhibits that evoke your curiosity. Then, relax amidst the enchantment of picturesque bays and pretty pastel Bermuda houses dotting verdant hillsides during a drive around Harrington Sound. Your journey of wonder continues at Crystal Caves of Bermuda—one of the island's largest and most dramatic cave systems. Descend 81 steps into the caves and experience breathtaking views. Immersed amongst mysterious crystalized stalactites, gaze at the caves' astounding deep azure lakes, then follow the same steps for your ascent out of the caves. The scenic return drive along the Great Sound is a perfect moment to reflect on all you've experienced.

Essential, Enchanting Bermuda

Fall in love with Bermuda as you visit many of its most compelling attributes during this half-day driving tour through the island. Your driver will pick you up at Royal Naval Dockyard and take you into picturesque Somerset Village—with a pass over Somerset Drawbridge, the smallest drawbridge in the world. Have your camera to hand at Gibbs Hill Lighthouse and its enthralling, 360-degree view. Be ready for occasional photo stops while Bermuda's beauty captivates you during a coastal South Shore drive where you'll glimpse the island's beloved pink-sand beaches, azure waters and, on a clear day, the imposing barrier reef that encircles the island. This drive also takes you past Bermuda Botanical Gardens, a lush, 14.5-hectare (36-acre) haven for flowers, shrubs, and trees, and then to another photo stop at John Smith's Bay whilst en route to what UNESCO calls "The Historic Town of St George and Related Fortifications"—known commonly as St George's. In this earliest example of an English urban settlement in the New World, take time on your own to wander the town's quaint brick streets and admire its Colonial architecture, popping into irresistible shops along the way, or even posing for a photo on the Stocks, aside the Ducking Stool, or on the steps of Their Majesties Chappell, St. Peter's Church—the oldest Anglican church in continuous use outside the British Isles. Your route through the best of Bermuda continues with a stunning drive along the North Shore, with enchanting coastal views and glimpses of more pastel homes dotting the landscape, to Hamilton, Bermuda's capital and cosmopolitan centre. There, enjoy free time to meander fascinating Front Street, with art, high-end shops, and mouthwatering eateries all beckoning for your attention. From this life-and-soul-of-the-island hotspot, your return drive to Royal Naval Dockyard takes you along Middle Road, with gorgeous views of Great Sound to cap off your day on an enchanted island.
